HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

The title to this item might be "Baby-Sitter Strikes Back."

In a recent "Health For All" column in the Peninsula News, parents were urged to "inquire into the health of your baby-sitter."

An anonymous reader mailed us a clipping of the column and enclosed the following note:

"Saw this in the News—you'd be surprised at the calls we get—and when we arrive the whole gang with a bad case of the sniffles—oh its alright for the little dears to give us colds but shame on us if we so much as let out a nervous cough—wondering if we will be able to ward off the contamination—think of that will you—of course we don't want in your paper so no name to this but I know what I am talking about."

O. K., Gwendolyn, you got that off your chest!

* * *

A local high school girl, assigned to write a theme, tore herself away from the TV set and went into the kitchen about 8 p.m. to work on it. She took the phone and radio with her, naturally, and tuned in on a "rhythm 'n' blues" program while talking on the phone.

At 8:10 a car honked outside. She dropped the phone like a hot potato and took off.

In a few minutes she was back; then for awhile only the radio was in use. But at 8:30 came the telephone urge and she dialed a number. After 15 minutes of conversation and "music," somebody borrowed the radio.

That left only the phone. Using her left hand to hold the instrument, she continued the conversation while writing the theme with her other hand; this went on for 50 minutes until her mother came home and suggested she terminate the conversation.

That produced an outburst. "All you do is gripe, gripe!" she screamed at her mother.

* * *

And then there's spelling. The same woman recently sent a hand-carved salad bowl to a young couple for a wedding present. Back came a nice note from the girl (who had attended college for a year, incidentally), thanking her for the "bowel."

Oh, well. Many adults can't spell, either, so don't blame it on today's schools.

* * *

The TV hucksters would have us believe that everybody now spends their evenings watching TV—but don't you believe it. I know at least three people who still read books.

Me, I'm still fighting the Civil War. My latest prize from the Ocean Beach Library is Bruce Catton's "A Stillness at Appomattox." This is the third and final volume of his story of the Army of the Potomac; the others are "Mr. Lincoln's Army" and "Glory Road."

Brother Catton has dug deep and written powerfully. If I were teaching U. S. History, I'd make those three books required reading.

'Dating' Is Topic At Pt. Loma PTA

Point Loma High School PTA announces the second in a series of study groups regarding the high school student, titled "Let's Talk It Over."

The meeting will be held in the school's new cafeteria tonight, Oct. 20, from 7:30 to 9 p.m. (Night meetings are being held to give fathers an opportunity to attend.)

Topics are as follows:

1—Growing up physically and emotionally.
2—Dating.
3—Going steady.
4—Courtship and marriage.

A summary of the Health Education program will be presented by Mrs. Marjorie Warmer, girls' counselor, and Richard Maloney, boys' counselor.

Mrs C. L. Adams will be in charge of the meeting.

Charity Bridge

A total of $171.93 was raised at the annual Charity Bridge Tournament held Sunday at O. B. Community Center by the Ocean Beach-Mission Beach-La Jolla area committee of the American Contract Bridge League.

That announcement was made by Earl Beach, committee chairman. The money will be given to the San Diego Association for the aid of crippled and retarded children, he said.

"The committee wishes to express its thanks to the bridge players of the Ocean Beach area for their aid and cooperation," he added.

SINGER—Mrs. Frances Pool, local resident, who will sing the role of Miss Silverpeal in "The Impresario" at California Western University tomorrow and Saturday nights. She sang with the St. Louis Civic Opera last year.

CALIFORNIA WESTERN OPERA WORKSHOP TO OPEN SEASON

California Western University's Opera Workshop will present the season's first production tomorrow and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the Goodwin Memorial Chapel on the campus.

Mozart's one-act opera, "The Impresario" and the third act from Gluck's "Orfeo ed Euridice" will be presented by singers coached by Dr. Walter Teutsch.

Frances Pool, of 4894½ Santa Cruz Ave., wife of Dr. William L. Pool, Navy Dentist, will sing the role of Miss Silverpeal in "The Impresario."

Joseph E. Hitt Jr., of 917 Temple St., is to play the part of the impresario, Mr. Scruples. He has the only non-singing role.

Joanne Regenhardt of La Jolla, and Louise Knapp of Vista will sing the title roles in "Orfeo ed Euridice." Both are widely-known singers.

Sets were designed by Mrs. Walter Teutsch, an art lecturer at Cal Western.

Both operas will be sung in English and produced in costume under the direction of Dr. Teutsch, associate professor of music.

Tickets are on sale at Palmer Box Office, 640 Broadway, or reservations may be made by calling AC-2-1106. Only 250 seats are available for each night, and reservations will be made in order of arrival.

'Shipwreck' Dance Planned By Club

A "shipwreck" costume dinner-dance will mark the Halloween month for Qui Vive Dance Club when members meet Saturday evening, Oct. 22, at 7 o'clock at the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences, 3380 Harbor Drive.

Instructions on proper dress for the occasion are embodied in the dance theme: "Come As You Were When The Ship Went Down."

Decorations will be in the form of stage sets: a tropical isle for those who made shore safely and Davy Jones' Locker for those who did not. Dance chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Felix, 3615 Plumosa Park.

Other committee members in the Peninsula area include: Messrs. and Mmes. Vernon Sherwin, John R. Howard and Richard Paden.

Public Invited To Boy Scout Field Day Sat.

Arrangements for the Third Annual Boy Scout Field Day are complete, it was announced yesterday by Donald M. Robinson, North Shore District Camping and Activities chairman, San Diego County Council Boy Scouts.

The event, held for Boy Scouts and Explorers, will be staged at Balboa Camp in Balboa Park Saturday, Oct. 22. Registration will be held at 10 a.m.

The program will include: Tent pitching, knot tying, First Aid, compass work, nature study, etc. Post Explorers will judge events. Troops and crews are reminded to bring their sack lunch.

Recreational swimming will begin at 3 p.m. For additional information, call Robinson at GL-4-7307 or AC-3-0915.

The public is invited.

Tom Gay Transferred To L. A.

Tom Gay, 2555 Locust St., Loma Portal, district telephone traffic superintendent, has been transferred to a similar position in downtown Los Angeles.

Gay has been responsible for the quality of telephone service rendered both by operators and dial equipment in Pt. Loma, Hillcrest, and northern San Diego county for three years.

He is a member of the Pt. Loma Kiwanis and the San Diego Yacht Club. He, his wife, Polly, and their six-year-old son, Charles, plan on selling their house and moving in the near future.

Gay will be succeeded by J. R. Norton, of the San Francisco office. He also is interested in sailing, and in living in the Pt. Loma area.

PL To Present Patriotic Assemblies

"Landmarks in Our American Heritage" is the theme of patriotic assemblies to be presented at Point Loma High School Friday, Oct. 21, at 9 a.m. and 9:40 a.m. in the auditorium.

This annual program is dedicated each year to the United Nations and also is a re-dedication of the participants and audience to the American way of life, according to Jeweldean Brodie, director.

Assisting students in drama and public speaking in presenting the program are members of the stage design class with Willa B. Brodie, faculty director; the Point Loma Choir directed by Robert E. Heninger, and the ROTC Color Guard.

A novel feature will be the guest visitor who is taken on a tour of some of the significant landmarks in the U. S.—Peter Lykke, the Point Loma student from Norway.

Kendall Squires is to serve as general commentator and guide as he takes Peter to see Plymouth Rock, Independence Hall, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Statue of Liberty, and United Nations Building.

Other speech arts students on the program are Wayne Peterson, Eleanor McCardle, Diane Davis, Joe La Dou, Richard Stull, Carol Cameron, Fred Goodman, Marlene Peck, Linda Jessop and Aldine Harvey.

Friends, parents and patrons of the school are cordially invited to share this outstanding event with students and faculty.

STATE COLLEGE HOMECOMING STARTS SUNDAY

The week-long Homecoming activities at State College beginning Sunday include a float parade, dance, banquet and tea for alums, rallies and selection of a queen.

Twenty queen candidates, all seniors, will be honored at a tea Sunday from 2:30-4.30 p.m. in Scripps Cottage on campus. All alumni are invited. The three judges, life members of the Alumni Association, will meet the candidates for the preliminary judging.

Candidates and foreign students will be introduced to the students at a rally Tuesday on campus, and again at a Thursday rally, when the queen and her four attendants will be announced and crowned.

Alumni will gather at the Mission Valley Country Club Tuesday at 7 p.m. for a banquet. O. W. Todd Jr., president of the SDSC advisory board, will be guest speaker, and Ray Blair of the Chamber of Commerce will act as master of ceremonies. Judges will vote for the queen and court.

Conforming to the theme, "Monty Goes International," 21 floats will each depict a different country. The parade will begin at 12 noon Saturday and follow El Cajon Blvd. from Oregon to 37th St.

The football game with San Francisco State College will start at 2:15 p.m. Homecoming events will end with the dance in the El Cortez Hotel at 9 p.m. Willie Welch's band will play, and float trophies will be awarded by President Malcolm Love and parade marshal Dr. John Rand.

Students of the classes of 1905, 1915, 1925, 1935, and 1945 are being honored this year, according to Homecoming chairman Buddy Rogers.

METHODIST YOUTH MEETING HELD AT CALIF. WESTERN 'U'

Approximately 225 youthful delegates and their counselors, representing 24 churches from Hemet to Imperial Valley, attended a Methodist Youth Leadership Training Conference at California Western University last Saturday.

Linda Cameron, of Point Loma Methodist Church, Rev. John Atwood, pastor, was the registrar. Michelle Matthews, Beverly Anne Long, Cathy Brumley and Vicki Scott, all of the local church, were assistant registrars. Mrs. Trudi Wiley was senior counselor for this group.

Vicki Ingalls, San Diego District, secretary; Nick Schowengerdt, district treasurer, and Bill Schenck, were Point Loma delegates.

La Mesa Methodist sent the largest group, with 24 teenagers and adults in attendance. Other area churches represented included Asbury and Trinity, San Diego; St. Paul's, Coronado; Pacific Beach, Lemon Grove and Santee.

Plans were made for the district convention and election of officers next spring. During June the Area Youth Training Conference will be held at Camp Colby.

All training courses emphasize spiritual growth, and stress the importance of evangelism.

'ART IS FOR EVERYONE' THEME OF ANNUAL DRIFTWOOD SHOW

"Art Is For Everyone" is the theme of the third annual Driftwood Exhibit to be held Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 5 and 6, from 1 to 5 p.m. at Lomaland Hall on the campus of California Western University on Point Loma.

Sponsored by the university, the 400-piece display last year attracted more than 3000 viewers. The exhibit is part of the University's "Arts Program," which is a continuing series of events offered on the campus.

Classifications for display are: abstract pieces, caricatures, arrangements of natural woods with other media, miniatures, hand-carved sculptured pieces, holiday or seasonal arrangements.

One section will be devoted to displays by young people in junior and senior high school. Awards, based on a popular ballot, will be presented for the best in the show and for the best in each classification.

Members of the planning board are Mrs. H. Gary Hudson, chairman; Mmes. William C. Rust, Edwin E. Krapt, Carl Glick, Sidney Warren, Frederick C. Sherman, Herbert Kunzel, Ewart W. Goodwin, and Miss Barbara Mills. Mrs. Gertrude Teutsch and J. Milford Ellison, of the university art department, will plan and design the setting for the exhibit.

Registration blanks may be obtained by calling or writing to the committee at the university. The exhibit is open to the public without charge.

United Success Drive Report

The Peninsula area this week slipped from fourth to seventh in percentage of quota raised in the residential phase of the United Success Drive, according to word from Community Chest headquarters.

Topping this area in the percentages were Clairemont, East San Diego, Pacific Beach-Mission Beach, Encanto-Paradise Hills, Linda Vista-Allied Gardens, and Hillcrest-Mission Hills-Valley-Middletown, it was said.

Mrs. Harley C. Greaves, chairmain for this area, urged campaigners to cover their assigned territory as quickly as possible. She said, "The people of the Penninsula would like to see their own area out in front. We can do it, too, if the campaigners do their job thoroughly and if the people at home have gifts that they consider their fair share of the total community resposibility ready and waiting."

45 New Residents At 1st Meeting Of Newcomers' Club

Forty-five new residents of the Peninsula area attended the first luncheon meeting of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers' Club at Bali Hai last Thursday. Temporary officers to serve until the first of the year are Mrs. E. W. Kaiser, president; Mrs. W. E. Hindson, vice president; Mrs. L. D. Wells, secretary, and Mrs. Franklin Fox, treasurer.

Mrs. Kaiser reports enthusiastic plans for future monthly meetings. Among the many activities suggested were sightseeing tours of San Diego, talks by civic leaders, bridge and canasta parties, and an occasional evening to give the husbands a chance to get acquainted.

Although this is the first Newcomers' Club in San Diego, others will be formed throughout the city. Similar groups now meet in Coronado and Vista.

Point Loma Vs La Jolla At Local Field Friday

Peninsula football fans are expected to turn out in force tomorrow for Point Loma High School's Homecoming game with traditional rival La Jolla at the local field. Kickoff is set for 2:30 p.m.

The Homecoming queen, attended by her court, will be crowned between halves. "Fantasty," this year's theme, will be presented by the Lomanettes, band, song and cheer leaders.

A dance will be held in the girls' gym, 8 to 11 p.m., with music provided by the King's Men. Alumni are welcome—they are asked to make telephone reservations in advance with Mrs. Jean Wood, dean.

Point Loma's 42-0 defeat at the hands of San Diego High last Friday night wasn't as bad as the score sounds. The locals looked good on defense until just before the end of the first half when, with the score 7-0 against them, a combination of injuries and other bad luck resulted in two quick touchdowns for San Diego.

The Pointers were fired-up for the game, too, but it was one of those nights when everything went wrong. Even the Pointers' passing attack, a highlight previously, misfired in this one.

Injuries to Jack Henry, fullback, and Bill Meyer, halfback, definitely hurt the locals.

Several others were nursing ailments of various sorts this week and it appeared the Pointers would not be at full strength against La Jolla.

Fred Jones' punting was one of the bright performances against San Diego.

Chamber To Elect Directors Tuesday

Eleven new directors of O. B. Chamber of Commerce for 1956 will be elected at a general luncheon meeting of the Chamber Tuesday noon, Oct. 25, at the Kiwanis Youth Center.

Harry La Dou, Chamber president, said that a complete report on 1955 activities will be given.

Tickets are $1.50 and may be obtained from Chamber directors or John Pierce, secretary, 1918 Bacon St.

All performances are matinees starting at 2:30 p.m., at Roosevelt Auditorium, 3366 Park Blvd. The play has a cast of 74, all bedecked in Oriental costumes made by themselves, as is the quaint scenery.

Point Loma Council, K. of C., will underwrite expenses through sale of tickets, will plan sales promotion, and man the box offices. Ladies of the Knights will lend their aid at booths in department stores.

Performances scheduled later are "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

Ocean Beach Woman's Club Meets

By MARIAN KRETTLER

Speaking on the subject of "Scholarships," Robert Heilbron, principal of Point Loma High School, enlightened the Ocean Beach Woman's Club last Thursday concerning the conditions and funds attached to those splendid opportunities for the young.

If you have a promising high school graduate in your family, it might be well to discuss the subject with Mr. Heilbron.

Long-delayed recognition was given a lovely white-haired lady during Thursday's meeting. Mrs. David Frazer has been the good angel of the local club since it was organized thirty years ago, but, as she said, the club was so busy getting started that no one thought of making her a member. That oversight was remedied when that long-time club woman became an honorary member of the Ocean Beach Woman's Club.

Contrary to custom, the beautifully-appointed tea table arranged by Mrs. Ralph Kimball and her associates was placed on the platform, while the officers sat on the level. That indicates progressive change since the ladies in power will not have to worry about up-hiking skirts or ungraceful posture.

Mrs. R. C. Kimball, chairman of Ways and Means for October, calls attention to the bus trip to Disneyland, October 28. Reservations are still available by calling Mrs. Kimball, AC-3-3698.

AAUW MOVIE NIGHT

Colored slides of Peru will be shown by Viletta Hutchinson at the first guest movie night of the San Diego branch, American Association of University Women, Thursday, Oct. 20, at 8 o'clock at the clubhouse. Mrs. Charles J. Marshall is chairman.

Seven Peninsula area women will attend the Southern Regional Conference of the California State Division of AAUW Oct. 21 and 22, in Long Beach. They are: Mmes. Melvin F. Godwin, Edgar N. Sanford, Everett W. Thatcher, Lloyd E. Wagner, J. Dale Sutliff, Marshall and Miss Charlotte M. Hardin.

More than half a million school pupils are known to use private automobiles regularly to reach classes, reports the National Automobile Club.

AAUW Conducting Rummage Search

Eight hundred members of the San Diego Branch of American Association of University Women are now conducting a "rummage rampage" to salvage their flotsam and jetsam for fellowships and scholarships.

Members throughout the county are this week ransacking their cupboards, closets, drawers, and attics. The rummage sale will be held November 15 in American Legion Hall. Five years have passed since the local AAUW used this method of financing its works; hence the sale is expected to yield ample funds for the branch's annual international fellowship and local scholarship obligations.

Mrs. David H. R. Pain, AAUW Ways and Means chairman, has appointed Mrs. Charles M. Snell head of the rummage project. Local chairman for the Peninsula area is Mrs. George A. Lazar.

Workers began telephoning and collecting items for the sale Sunday.

WOMEN'S GUILD GROUP 7

A luncheon meeting for members of Group 7 of the Women's Guild of Point Loma Community Church will be held Tuesday, Oct. 25, at 12 noon in the home of Mrs. H. Dean Moffett, 2666 Chatsworth Blvd. Mrs. V. Charles Moore is group leader.

Mrs. Richard Maloney will be hostess at a desert meeting of Group 5 Wed., Oct. 26, at 12 noon in her home at 1062 Bangor St. Mrs. Harold D. Jewell is leader.

Model To Talk To Girl Scouts

Miss Kitty Kaufman, professional model and former Powers' Girl, will be guest speaker at a dinner meeting of 7th grade Girl Scout troops at Dana Junior High School, Tuesday evening, Oct. 25, at 6 o'clock.

"Miss Kaufman, well known authority on fashion and charm, will give the girls pointers on how to become poised and attractive young ladies," said Mrs. Roy M. Cleator, a member of the troop's planning board.

The lecturer, trained by Harry Conover of New York City, has modeled for I. Magnin and other important stores all over the country, Mrs. Cleator said. She has been featured in moving picture shorts, has had her own radio program and newspaper column.
